"GOIN' WEST TO DIE."

BY JOHN H. YATES.

Well, here we are my dear old wife, on board
this train at last!

Our little old packed in a trunk, with looks and things made for a long journey.

I hear the bell a-ringing and the whistle's
piercing cry;

There wife, we're movin' out of town - we're
goin' West to die!

We've been from Jane's to John's house, from John's house back to Jane's.

Till now, they're laid the burdens down on board this Western train;

'Tis rather to send us all crippled up and gray;

To find a place on which to die, two thousand miles away.

Since we broke up a keepin' house, they've settled around.

Till now, it seems, a home for us on earth can not be found.

As sure as this old face of mine can ne'er look young again.

So sure we'll never more return to trouble
John or Jane.

They send us to a stranger land, o'er an untravelled road.

That, Mary, is her Western home, may hear the heavy load.

It isn't to be wondered at that my eyes are filled with tears.

Or that my form is bending with more than weight of years.

I didn't think 't would come to this - I didn't mean it should.

No home like our own home, told me of youth and love.

No home is sweet when eating it 'mid bitterness and strife;

Few care to fill with peace and joy an old man's closing life.

Now o'er a long, untravelled road we seek a stranger land.

The old home circle broken up at cruel time's command.

But time can

HOPKINSVILLE, JUNE 27, 1882.

Democratic State Ticket.

For Clerk of the Court of Appeals
THOS. J. HENRY,
OF MORGAN COUNTY.

FOR COUNTY JAILER,
AQUILLA B. LONG

Adieu Guiten.
The Republicans carried Oregon by 3,200 votes.

Congress will not adjourn before the 10th of July.

The Cadiz Telephone has declared for Hon. J. Proctor Knott, for Governor.

Mr. El. F. Madden has sold his one-fourth interest in the Louisville Post for $8,000.

The State Bar Association which was organized at Louisville last week held a very successful and interesting meeting.

Gov. Blackburn was one of Bro. Barnes' converts at Frankfort. There have been over 1,000 conversions up to this time.

Diffkins has just heard that a State Bar Association has been organized and is anxious to know if it will effect the piece of drunks.

The Greenbackers of the Second District met in convention at Selma City last Thursday and nominated Judge C. W. Cook, of Dixon, for Congress.

Guiten's last hope is gone. The President has refused to receive him and the assassin now realizes that his end is at hand. He says he is prepared to die.

The Henderson News announces that it will support McKenize for Congress, notwithstanding the fact that Henderson county has a candidate against him.

Gov. Blackburn pardoned three rapists out of the penitentiary the very day he was "pardoned" in Bro. Barnes' meeting. Confessing doesn't seem to have changed him much.

The Mobile News says the young people of Brantleburg kiss publicly on the streets, in the day time. The statement is probably made in the interest of the local immigration society.

Col. Oscar Turner has announced himself a candidate for re-election in the First Congressional District. He says he is willing to submit to a primary election, if he should have Democratic opposition.

Gov. Blackburn has requested all of his Colonials to meet him in Louisville to-morrow. That city, we suppose, is the only one in the State that has sufficient hotel accommodations to provide entertainment for them.

Hon. Richard A. Jones, of Louisville, is a Democratic candidate for Attorney General next year. He was a candidate in 1879 and had a very strong following. He is well qualified to fill the office admirably.

An Elkton debating society is going to decide the question, "Was the murder of Jesse James justifiable?" When this work is accomplished let it tackle the questions, "Was Guiten crazy?" and "Is Jno. D. White a fool?"

The convention to nominate a candidate in the Second Superior Court District will meet in Danville, July 6. Maj. Adolphus E. Richards, of Louisville, has instructed votes enough to give him the nomination on the first ballot.

The Owen News is the latest addition to our exchange list. It has Henry's name at its mast-head, notwithstanding it was one of the Hartford Herald's "25" anti-Henry papers. That number has been diminished about one-third and several others are getting weak-kneed in their opposition to the party nominee.

The United States Court of Kentucky has decided that a man can call another a "d-d scoundrel and rascal" on a postal card without violating the law prohibiting the mailing of indecent and immoral matter. If cards of this kind are ever sent at all, they should be sent to the Judge who would make such a decision.

We can but admire the patriotic course the Columbia Spectator has pursued in the Henry matter. Feeling that he could not conscientiously support the nominee, the editor merely took down his name and, so far as we have seen, not one word of abuse has he ever heaped upon the Democratic standard-bearer. We are sorry that this can not be said of others who profess to be Democrats.

If the convention to nominate a Superior Court Judge, which meets here next Friday, adopts the Blackburn vote as a basis of representation there will be 214 votes; necessary to elect 108. The instructed votes show that the first ballot will be as follows: Bowlen, 65; Bigger, 70; Williams 49; Bullitt 12; Bunch 22. The indications are that the race will narrow down to Bowlen and Bigger, with Williams' friends holding the balance of power.

FEELING THE REPUBLICAN PULSE.

The Henry Jacob Race.

Desiring to feel the Republican pulse on the subject of the Jacob movement, a representative of the South Kentuckian approached several of the party leaders in this county and found that none of them are going to vote for Jacob. The first interviewed was Hon. A. H. Clark one of the "immortal 306" and one of the ablest lawyers in the Republican party in this portion of the State. He was found reclining in a barber's chair in a tonsorial parlor and when the name of Jacob was mentioned he straightened up and with his face white with rage and latter said:

"No sir, I'm not going to vote for Jacob and very few Republicans will. Why Tom Henry is a good man. He is a typical Kentuckian. A Kentuckian who doesn't love liquor and women is not deserving of the name. If I vote at all I will vote for Henry. Jacob is a political sord-head and a fly-up-the-creek and the attempt to foist him on the Republicans is about as thin as circus lemonade. Henry will get more Republican votes than Jacob will."

The next man interviewed was Maj. Jno. W. Breathitt, the county clerk, who, by-the-way, is about as clever as Republicans ever get to be, and who is the nominee of his party for the third term.

"Well Major are you a Jacob man?" "No sir, I'm going to vote for Henry," was the decided answer.

"You are not going to follow where your State organ leads then?" "Not when it leads to the support of a sord-head and better like Jacob. What claim has Jacob on the Republican party? He says he is as much of a Democrat as he ever was. He represents no principle. He is after the spoils and I for one am not going to help encourage such a movement. Tom Henry will be elected by a big majority and the more he is persecuted the larger his majority will be. The only fault I have to find with Henry is that he did not curse out the whole crew and pay no attention to the charges brought against him by the Commercial. He might have lost a few pious votes but the people would have admired his 'spunk.'"

Just then the towering form of Cyrus M. Brown, the stalwart sheriff of the county, hove into sight. He was explaining to a voter why he thought everybody, Democrats and all, should vote for him at the next election.

"How do you stand, Cy, on the clerk's race?" "I don't know that I will vote, but if I do I will vote for Henry. You can wager your sugar-coated existence that I will not vote for Jacob."

"Will Jacob get many Republican votes?" "He won't get any in this county that I know of. Jacob claims to be a Democrat and if we have to vote between Democrats we had rather vote for a straight-out one in preference to a bolter. Henry is just as sure to be elected as I am to be elected sheriff, and there is no doubt of that for even the women and children are for me," and he turned off to electioneer with an itinerant vender of corn-medicine who was taking his stand on the street.

The next sought out was Hon. Jas. Breathitt, the county Representative, and one of the brightest young men in western Kentucky. It will be remembered that Mr. Breathitt refused to endorse the action of the editor of the Commercial in wanting the Republican executive committee to endorse Jacob, while he was at Frankfort. Mr. Breathitt gave his reasons at length. He said that there was no necessity for a new party in the State and that there existed no idea upon which to found one. That Jacob was an inconsistent bolter and was professing allegiance to the Democratic party while he was asking Republicans to elect him. "If Jacob should be elected it would not be a Republican victory and I am opposed to encouraging bolters of any kind. Jacob's inconsistency is shown in the fact that he is appealing to war prejudices, the very thing which he claims demanded a new party. There is too much of this now. The war is over and should be forgotten and the sooner we cease to bring it up in politics the sooner will we be a happy and united people. If I vote at all I shall vote for Henry and I believe Henry will be elected by 60,000 majority. The charges made against him amounted to nothing, even granting that they were true. It would be hard to find a politician who doesn't drink liquor and any man who drinks is liable to take too much and lose control of himself."

Mr. E. G. Sobree, nominee for county attorney, and law partner of Hon. John Feland, was asked as he passed upon the street, "Are you going to vote for Jacob?"

"Not that anybody knows of," was the laconic reply as he glanced over his shoulder without stopping.

Other prominent Republicans were reticent and refused to be interviewed, but those who are in a position to know say that very few Republicans will support Jacob. The colored people refused to endorse him for five days since and we seriously doubt if he will get 50 votes in Christian county.

Eight veterans of the war of 1812 held a re-union at Lexington, Ky. Saturday. Dr. Chunn, Chairman of the meeting, said that fifteen years ago the Association numbered near 150. A coincidence is that in 1878 there were 35 present, and 35 deaths reported; in 1879, 25 present and 25 deaths; in 1881, 14 present and 13 deaths, and the present meeting 8 present and 9 deaths.

John Bush and Isaac Turner, both colored, will be hanged at Lexington, July 28th.

The Interior Journal says hail stones fell in Lincoln last week as large as hen eggs.

Breathitt's Bills.

The following is a list of the local bills introduced by Mr. Breathitt and passed by the last Legislature:

164. An act to prevent the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors within three miles of Pedee, in the county of Christian. Approved Feb. 11, 1882.

200. An act to prevent the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors within two miles of Spring Hill Baptist church (colored), in the county of Christian. Approved Feb. 18, 1882.

455. An act to amend an act, entitled, "An act to organize and establish a system of public schools in the city of Hopkinsville, for white children in said city," approved Mar. 13, 1872. Approved Mar. 18, 1882.

500. An act to regulate the working and laying out public roads in Christian county. Approved Mar. 21, 1882.

593. An act to establish a road district in the county of Christian, and to provide for improving and maintaining public roads therein. Approved Mar. 29, 1882.

1086. An act to incorporate the North American Mutual Accident Association. Approved Apr. 17, 1882.

1103. An act to incorporate the Mutual Health Association of America. Approved Apr. 17, 1882.

1168. An act to prohibit the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors in Christian county, within a certain distance of Chapel Hill Church. Approved Apr. 16, 1882.

1307. An act to amend the charter of the city of Hopkinsville (abolishing the office of city marshal). Approved Apr. 24, 1882.

1433. An act to fix the time and places for holding the circuit courts in the second judicial district. Approved April 24, 1882.

Said act reads as follows:

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That the terms of the circuit court in the counties composing the second judicial district shall begin and be held at the following times and places, and for the period hereinafter designated, if the business require it:

At Greenville, in Muhlenburg county, on the second Mondays in February and August, and continue 15 days at each term.

At Hopkinsville, in Christian county, on the first Mondays in March and September, and continue 24 days at each term.

At Madisonville, in Hopkins county, on the first Mondays in April and October, and continue 18 days at each term.

At Paducah, in Kentucky county, on the fourth Mondays in April and October, and continue 15 days at each term.

At Princeton, in Caldwell county, on the third Mondays in May and November, and continue 18 days at each term.

At Eldysville, in Lyon county, on the second Mondays in June and December, and continue 18 days at each term.

All acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

3 This act shall take effect the first day of August, 1882.

Here is the opinion of the mountain evangelist as expressed by the editor of the Frankfort Yeoman:

George O. Barnes is a man marvelously endowed. He is gifted with a teaching power beyond that of any man we have heard speak upon subjects of religion, or indeed, upon any other subject. His words are luminous, his logic clear, and his faith powerful. This is saying a great deal, but it is not more than the thousands who hear him every day will endorse. Having listened to him at intervals during his two weeks' stay in Frankfort, we have to make the free and open admission that he has impressed us more sensibly with the truth of Christianity—with the belief that Christ is the son of God—than has all the preaching and teaching that has come to us in our life time.

A terrible and destructive cyclone passed through Iowa and other western states on the 17th inst. Grinnell and Malcolm, Iowa, and Brooklyn, Kansas, seem to have been the greatest sufferers. In Grinnell forty persons were killed and many were wrecked with loss of life, houses were demolished and property of all kinds destroyed and injured. The number of deaths reached nearly one hundred. The people of the storm districts appealed to the public for aid to relieve their suffering and distress. It was one of the most fearful cyclones that ever visited any section of the country.

The Democrats of Tennessee met in convention at Nashville last week. For a while it was believed that the party would be united, but the debt question split the body as usual and about 200 state-credit Democrats bolted its action. The convention consisted of 1,400 delegates. Gen. W. B. Bate, of Nashville, was nominated by such an overwhelming majority that it was made unanimous. The bolters met in caucus and decided to appoint an executive committee and to call a convention of State-credit Democrats, to meet July 11th and nominate a Governor. Gen. W. H. Jackson, Col. J. E. Bailey, Dr. R. L. C. White, Mr. H. M. Donk and other prominent men were among those who bolted. The result will be that Hawkins, Republican, will be re-elected Governor.
